

Agriculture

Characters with this skill are well-versed in knowledge of the seasons, weather patterns, and the best crops to grow given the climate and soil conditions. In addition, they know how to determine the best time and method to harvest their crop and store it during the winter months. A character with this skill can determine, on a successful Int test, whether a crop failure is due to natural (disease, insect infestation) or other (indeterminable) causes.